

Pediatric Physical Therapy Services observes the HIPPA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996) regulations, which include Privacy and Transaction Rules. This act designates that all records must be maintained in a locked secure space and that no record can be disclosed to insurance companies or other professionals without your informed written consent. Your insurance carrier, child's pediatrician teachers or other professionals providing services to your child most often request medical and billing information. The release of information can be canceled at any time in writing.

I LOOK FORWARD TO WORKING WITH YOU AND YOUR CHILD.
